BERKELEY

May 23, 1923.

Dear Dr. Munz:-

It is a pleasure to know that you will be in Berkeley this summer; and I shall be most glad to have you use the extra room in my quarters at 2712 Benvenue Ave. I have the top floor and your room is the north-west one and commands a view of the bay, the Gate and Tamalpais. My apartment is not elaborate but I hope you will find it sufficiently comfortable. I shall see that a visitor's card at the Faculty Club is waiting foryou; and in case I am not around at the moment of your arrival I will have a pass key for 2712 Benvenue at the Faculty Club. So call in at Faculty Club on arrival, get your pass key and also make use of the club.

Yours Cordially,

W. L. Jepson

I have just had a visitors card signed for you at the Club, beginning July 15. When you come, go to the office, use my name and you will have the privileges of the Club. It is impossible for me to say now about my vacation plans.
